First free level was super fun and me and my friend had alot of fun playing it, but this dlc had much lower quality puzzles than the first if you miss one little item you can spend hours trying to solve the puzzle and find out that you just needed to pick up a book that was not rendered for you because of a glitch... the puzzles mostly are just find the 4 didget code and there are no puzzles that actually require much thought mostly just trial and error any time me and my friend came up with what seemed like it would be a good solution we would find that the soltion was much simpler and usually just required a random item to be used in a random place... not recomended. The first free level was a blast to play with a friend. However, this DLC level was utter trash. Almost all of the puzzles just required you to find the next 4 digit code, and every time there was an opportunity for a clever puzzle solution, the developers instead opted to go with a stupid, simple solution. It also does not mention in the store page that all players must own the DLC, not just the room host. Don't buy any of these DLCs, they are just lazy cash grabs. Several bugs were also encountered that hindered progress.
